Go Around the World in Four Days – Quilt Style!
The World Quilt Show – New England
Returns to the Radisson Center of New Hampshire, August 19-22, 2010

Story: Mary Claire Moyer

Want to see quilts from across the globe? No need to spend eighty days traveling by boat. We are bringing the quilts to you. Join us at the Radisson Center of New Hampshire for the World Quilt Show – New England, August 19-22, 2010. The premier of the 2010 World Quilt Competition XIV will be presented at the Manchester, NH venue. These quilts from all over the globe present a mix of culture, fun and creative talent. Enjoy a wide range of quilt and textile related activities including workshops and lectures presented by an internationally known faculty. Also, if you need to cap-off your unfinished summer project or jump-start something fresh for the fall season, the show's Merchants Mall will offer everything you may possibly need!

The World Quilt Show's 2010 faculty includes Barbara Barber from England as well as Phyllis Anderson, Bobbie Bergquist, Augusta Cole, Christine Fries, Dierdra McElroy, Linda Schmidt, Lois Smith and Deb Tucker. Join one or more of these talented instructors in a workshop to learn a new technique or perhaps brush up an old one.

NEW THIS YEAR - Show Management has added exciting new features and activities including an all-inclusive show and hotel package available to quilt show registrants. Also among the highlights of the 2010 World Quilt Show is a special luncheon presentation by well-known instructor Augusta Cole titled "A Collage of Tricks, Tips & Tidbits." In addition, and new for 2010, the ever-popular World Quilt Panel & Forum will now be capped off by a festive Ice Cream Social!

This year's World Quilt Competition will feature quilts from Australia, Canada, Germany, Ireland, Japan, New Zealand, South Africa, the United Kingdom, and the United States. Enjoy the diversity of culture in how the different nationalities approach their art. Can't get enough of these amazing pieces of artwork? The International Entries and selected U.S. winning quilts will go on a whirlwind tour around the United States including the Pennsylvania National Quilt Extravaganza and Pacific International Quilt Festival before concluding with a grand finale exhibition at the World Quilt Show – Florida in November.

The World Quilt Show – New England is generously sponsored by Coats & Clark, Handi Quilter and ABM International/At Home Quilting.
